U.S. COURT OF
FEDERAL CLAIMS

No. 18-1052C
Filed: July 19, 2018

ORDER

Before the court is plaintiff's July 16, 2018 complaint. The complaint is labeled "IN ADMIRALTY" and provides for an "Admiralty Case No." (capitalization in original). Pursuant 28 U.S.C. § 1333 (2012), district courts have exclusive original jurisdiction to hear "any civil case of admiralty or maritime jurisdiction. . . ." 28 U.S.C. § 1333(1). "If a government contract claim concerns admiralty, the United States District Courts have exclusive jurisdiction." Hunsaker v. United States, 66 Fed. Cl. 129, 132 (2005); see also Thrustmaster of Texas, Inc. v. United States, 59 Fed. Cl. 672, 673 (2004) (holding that the Contract Disputes Act preserves admiralty jurisdiction in the federal district courts for suits arising out of maritime contracts). The law is well-settled that this court does not have jurisdiction to hear claims arising in admiralty, and, as such, plaintiff's admiralty complaint is dismissed for lack of subject matter jurisdiction. Plaintiff's complaint is DISMISSED. The Clerk of the Court shall enter judgment consistent with this Order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
